Greatest of Care

Should be Exercised With The Eyes.

Many cases have come to my notice where people have been duped by men here today and somewhere else tomorrow, which fact leads me to advise all persons reading attention given to their eyes to submit their cases to the resident Eye Specialist, who is known to all and who is here all the time to look after all his cases.

Very Respectfully,

OUR TWO LODGES.

Knights of Pythias Have Great Time in Greensboro.

The two lodges Knights of Pythias of this city, Greensboro Lodge No. 80 and Guilford Lodge No. 69, jointly entertained the district meeting last night. There were a large number of representatives present from the lodges composing the district and with a goodly number of local members there was a large attendance in castle hall. The largest delegations were from Lexington, Winston-Salem and Burlington. One exceedingly regrettable feature was the Winston-Salem brethren had to leave to catch their train (which was held for them until 11 p.m.) before the banquet. A number of those from Burlington and Graham also left before this last and enjoyable event came off.

The program prepared was carried out in a most interesting manner. The address of welcome by D. Schenk, Jr., and the response by Grand Chancellor Thos. S. Franklin were spicy, well-timed and to the point. Work in the first degree was exemplified by members from Charlotte who accompanied the Grand Chancellor. Two applicants took this degree and were well pleased with the beautiful and impressive ceremony. One candidate took the Third rank, the work being given by the team from Lexington in a finished, masterly manner.

Later in the evening when the district meeting adjourned all present were invited to the banquet at the McAdoo House. The tables were specially arranged for the occasion and were laden with a bounteous feast of tempting viands and with appetizers whetted by the long meeting full justice was done to the elegant spread. Divine blessing was invoked by Grand Prelate Robinson, of North Wilkesboro, amid a most respectful silence, becoming such a knightly gathering after, laughter and a full measure of enjoyment.

After the courses were all gone through (which by the way reflected great credit on the enterprising managers of the McAdoo) short speeches were made by a number of the brethren, among them being a charming recital by Bro. Robert Jordan, the elocutionist, whose presence and assistance was enjoyed and appreciated. The closing or "good night" speech was made by Col. W. J. Woodard, of Wilmington, a noble Pythian and a grand man. About one o'clock the members and their guests separated.

Those present will long remember and in after years will revert with peculiar pleasure to the district meeting in Greensboro, April 10, 1899. We hope to see all those noble, jolly and good-natured Pythian faces in Greensboro again and assure them, every one, that the latch-string will always be found hanging on the outside.

A Card.

It was not my intention to give any farewell concert, but the Orchestra members were so enthusiastic about appearing once more in public before accepting my resignation that I consented, providing they would do the incidental work.

This has been more faithfully done than I ever knew it before, and I believe that the result will be the most popular concert given in Greensboro in many a day.

Over fifty people will take part and the music is of a class that is sure to please.

In leaving Greensboro, home (and it will always be home to me), I am simply following the dictates of a conviction that has grown in me for several years past that my special lines of work require a broader field.

Miss Laura Brockmann will continue her work in your midst.

I sincerely thank the people of Greensboro for their confidence, friendship and patronage in the undertakings in which I have been engaged. The music school will continue as it is until vacation.

Yours truly,

Chas. J. Brockmann.

Up-to-date Shoes.

Try a pair of our $3.50 tan or black kid shoes for Easter. The only up-to-date line of men's shoes in the city, at Shrier's, 216 South Elm.

Base Ball.

On Saturday, April 8th, Guilford College lost to Oak Ridge by a score of 7 to 0. The second of this series of games will be played at Guilford on Wednesday, April 19th. As this game is to be played on Guilford's home grounds it is probable that an interesting game will be the result. Game called at 3 o'clock. Admission 25c.

An All Star Aggregation.

One of the nearest lines of Oxford ties ever shown in Greensboro is now offered at Shrier's. Ordinarily it is difficult to procure a comfortable shoe under $1.50 or $2.00 as they are usually stiff and unyielding to the foot. Such is not the case with our $1.25 kid Oxford ties in black and colored. These shoes are soft and flexible and guaranteed to give entire satisfaction. Shrier's, 216 South Elm st.

THE REBELS AGGRESSIVE.

McArthur's Line of Railway Communication Attacked.

ENEMY REPULSED BY WHEATON.

The Filipino Loss At Santa Cruz Severer Than Was At First Supposed—Our Loss.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

Washington, April 11—Three dispatches have been received from Otis at Manila today. He reports that the insurgents attacked McArthur's line of railway communication last night in considerable force, and were repulsed by Wheaton with heavy loss. The American casualties were three killed and twenty wounded.

Lawton's success at Santa Cruz is more complete than was reported yesterday. The enemy left ninety-three uniformed dead on the field and a number seriously wounded. Lawton's loss was ten wounded, all slight except two, one of whom has since died. Lieutenant Elling, the only officer wounded, was slightly disabled in the hand.

The enemy retired to the eastward, with Lawton in pursuit, and are being driven into the mountains beyond the city of Santa Cruz.

MORE MEN TO MANILA.

New York, April 11—More troops are being moved to the Philippines. Battery M, Sixth artillery, boarded a West Shore train at Weehawken this morning enroute west, and thence to Manila.

WORK AT THE IRON FURNACE.

Shipment of Ore From Chatham Will Begin Monday.

A telegram reporter visited the Empire Iron and Steel Works and from the busy appearance of the place one would judge that Mr. Coble is not amiss in stating that blasting will be begun on the 20th inst. Two of the large boilers were hot and furnishing steam for the large engine. The whistle performed its first work when it dismissed the workman at noon today. The present engine is 900 horse power. Another engine of 1000 horse power has been ordered and will be installed as soon as it arrives.

There are four large boilers, each with a capacity of 300 pounds of steam. When the furnace is put in operation the boilers will be heated by gas furnished by the combustion of the material in the furnace.

The Atlantic and Yadkin work train force are at work today on the spur track leading to the iron works and cars will run over it probably tomorrow. Mr. Noble says the shipment of ore from Ore Hill will begin next Monday.

A GRAND CAFE

To Be Opened Here By Mr. P. T. Edgerton.

M. Edgerton, of Dallas, Texas, has purchased the business of S. L. Uhler and will live in Greensboro. Mr. Edgerton is an old North Carolinian but has been in Texas for the past seven years. Mrs. Edgerton is the daughter of Ex-Sheriff Stafford, of Guilford county, and through her influence and on account of her health he comes to Greensboro.

He will remodel the store formerly occupied by Mr. Uhler and conduct it one of the finest confectionery stores and cafes in the state.

In about two weeks he will give an opening, serving ice cream free to all who are so fortunate as to get an invitation. The telegram extends him and his family a warm welcome and wishes him success.

The Famous Mexican Bull Fighters.

This mammoth organization of Mexican Matadors, Espadas, Toreros, Banderilleros, Capadores, Ploadores and Chulias, will give a true representation of Mexico's national sport, the bull fight in Greensboro, April 17th. Prominent among this noted caudrilla of Mexicans is Antonio Fernandez, the greatest of all Mexican bull fighters. This renowned Matador will appear at each and every performance. His inconceivable suppleness and agility, while tormenting the formidable bull, is unrivaled in his native country. The honor bestowed upon him for his daring exploits entitles him to Matador De Antonio Fernandez.

Seven-year-old Raymond Costello was accidentally locked in a New York school and imprisoned there all night, while his parents were searching frantically for him.

IN MAGISTRATE'S COURTS.

Cases of More or Less Importance Tried or Postponed.

'Squire Pritchett' yesterday afternoon tried the case of State vs. T. O. Tuttle, of Durham, and bound the defendant over to court. Mr. Tuttle was indicted upon complaint of J. H. West who charges that the defendant, on or about December 1st '98 wrote a libelous communication to the Bill Board Journal, charging Mr. West with swindling him. The defendant was represented by Ex-Judge John Gray Bynum and Z. V. Taylor, and the state by D. Schenk Jr.

The case of Weldon Smith, charged with assault with deadly weapon, was to have been tried by 'Squire Pritchett' this morning, but was transferred to 'Squire Eekle's' court and postponed until Saturday.

The case of State vs. Pless, Goley, charged with aiding in the want a destruction of the trees on Summit avenue, came up before 'Squire Eekle' yesterday afternoon, but was postponed until 3 o'clock this afternoon. The defendant claimed that he could not get witnesses from Graham before that time.

SIMPSON-SHIELDS SHOE CO.

Business of the Company in '98 Compared With Other Firms.

The people of Greensboro know that the business of the Simpson-Shields Shoe Company has been phenomenal, but a few words now and then about an important business in the city are not amiss. Since they began business about two years ago, their unparalleled growth has not only surprised the people but has also surprised their own hopes. The following facts taken from the "Shoe and Leather Reporter Annual" show something of what the company has done: Wilmington has two wholesale shoe houses, both of which have been established for several years; Newbern has one wholesale shoe house, which has also been established for more than three years. The aggregate business of the three houses in 1898, was 10,107 cases. The sales of the Simpson-Shields Shoe Company (established not quite two years) for the same year, amounted to 9,080 cases.

North Carolina's shoe business gained 25 per cent. more than any other southern state, the per cent. of all except North Carolina, Virginia and Tennessee losing.

Of the 24,000 cases of shoes shipped into North Carolina from Boston during the year nearly half came to the Greensboro company and it must be remembered that a large amount of the 24,000 were shipped direct to retailers.

A COSTLY BLAZE.

The Magnificent Mansion of W. K. Vanderbilt Burned.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Oakdale, L. I., April 11—Wm. K. Vanderbilt's magnificent country residence, "Idle Hour," was totally destroyed by fire shortly after midnight. Not a wall was left standing. All the costly paintings, statuary, valuable bric-a-brac and priceless treasures, costing hundreds of thousands of dollars, went up in smoke.

Mr. Vanderbilt and his young bride made their escape from the burning mansion and watched the flames standing upon the lawn.

Rip Van Winkle.

Mr. Samuel W. Glenn was seen at the theatre in two performances yesterday in Rip Van Winkle. The performance last night was a meritorious one and deserved a better audience.

The interpretation which Mr. Glenn gave of Irving's famous character was natural, refined and in every way excellent. It showed careful study of detail and an excellent conception of the role. His enunciation—like that of most of the actors of the old school to which Mr. Glenn belongs—was perfect, and his movements were graceful.

Mr. Wm. H. Bokes, who appeared as Derriek von Slaus, gave a splendid, virile portrayal. The other characters were fairly well taken. Julia and Josie Rooney, two bright little children, as Hendrick and Lorena, were delightfully charming. They sang a pretty little song and danced gracefully.—Morning News, Savannah, Ga., February 23rd.

Mr. Cartland Grows Weaker.

The condition of Mr. Cartland grows gradually weaker, and all hope for his recovery has been given up. For the last 24 hours he has been gradually sinking and his death has been momentarily expected. His weakness now is such that he has not a fighting chance and the end is near. Hundreds of anxious friends are praying that the good man's life may be spared, for in him the weak will lose a staunch and ready friend and the city one of her noblest and best citizens.

NORTH CAROLINA SOCIETY

At Washington Is Steadily Growing in Numbers.

THE RICHMOND CONFERENCE.

To Be Held Next Month—Considerable Interest Attached To It.

Other Interesting Notes.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, April 11—The North Carolina Society of this city will give a ball Friday night at Confederate Veteran's Hall. From eight to nine o'clock in the evening a reception will be held, after which refreshments will be served. Among distinguished North Carolinians who have been invited to attend the reception and ball is Col. Julian S. Carr, the well known tobacco man. The North Carolina Society is composed of members of the North Carolina contingent at Washington, and among its roles are many prominent representatives, government officials and others who are residing in the city. The ball to be given Friday night is the first ball to be given by the society and will mark the close of the Lenten season.

Mr. Frank Little, a well known North Carolinian, who has been secretary of the North Carolina Society, will remove from this city having recently been assigned to a mission under the United States government in one of the western states of the union. Next Friday night before the reception a short business session will be held for the purpose of choosing his successor.

A gentleman, a member of the North Carolina Society, said yesterday that the organization is steadily growing in numbers, and is becoming very popular among North Carolina people in the city either permanently, or temporarily sojourning in the city. At this season of the year, after the adjournment of congress, as a rule organizations of this character dwindle in numbers, and the members lose their interest more or less, but the North Carolina organization has been kept up, and is becoming stronger every day.

Senator Daniel, of Virginia, who has been in Washington for some time in attendance upon the sessions of the Industrial Labor commission will be in Washington for several days. Since his return to the city the senator has been busy with matters before the executive departments in which his constituents are interested. During his stay here the senator is stopping at the Metropolitan Hotel, his family having returned to Virginia and his residence here being closed.

Senator Daniel is opposed to the proposed primary plan for the selection of a candidate for the United States senate, and his friends here say that he will not give the scheme his support, looking upon it as a movement in opposition to the re-election of Senator Martin. Senator Daniel in the last Virginia state democratic convention opposed the plan submitted for a primary for the selection of senatorial candidates, as it was proposed at that time to adopt the South Carolina system. It was held then by the senator that the plan adopted, and in vogue in South Carolina, is cumbersome and expensive, and would entail a great cost on the democratic party in Virginia if adopted. Friends of the primary now say that if the plan for a primary is agreed to some other plan based on that adopted by South Carolina will be agreed to.

Interest is attached to the conference to be held at Richmond Virginia next month, because it is believed that if the primary system is adopted in that state, it will eventually be extended to other southern states, until the whole south accepts the plan for popular election of United States senators. People from North Carolina, Georgia and other southern states say that if the Virginia movement is successful, the plan will be extended to other states.

Postmasters have been appointed in North Carolina as follows: Sampson B. Page, Clement, Sampson county; Robert L. Harrill, Darfer Cleveland; J. W. Autry, Dismal, Sampson; Mrs. Emma Brown, Dyson, Ashe; J. J. McEn, Cameron, Endon, Cumberland; Stephen R. W. Clifton, Parkton, Robeson; J. M. Cattle, Pasley, Duplin.

Star service has been established in North Carolina as follows: Charlotte by Sugar Creek, Kent, Mallard and Exact, to Minor, 13 miles back and three times a week by a schedule of not to exceed 4 hours running time each way. To take effect April 25th.

Special service has been discontinued in North Carolina: Exact, Mecklenburg county, from Charlotte; Mallard, Mecklenburg county from Charlotte; Minor, Cabarrus county from Charlotte; Sugar Creek, Mecklenburg county from Charlotte.

Steven A. Gaskill has been commissioned postmaster at Stratts, North Carolina. Sarah F. Hill has been commissioned postmistress at Victoria, North Carolina.

PENSIONS.

According to the press reports, about one-third of an Ohio regiment, sweetly called "The President's Own," have applied for pensions. Why don't they put the whole volunteer army on the list, and save red tape expense, and the impatience and tantalization caused to the dear boys by the law's delay. We venture to remark that they'll all—every mother's son of them—be added to the rolls. You can't lose the pensioners, as the Charlotte Observer would say. And the peculiar thing about them is that they are blessed with immortality. McKinley's shop in the Philippines is running day and night manufacturing these parasites at a great rate. Nor does a fellow need to have felt the sting of a Mäuser to be allowed to draw his mite. Oh, no. Let him scent the battle from afar, recumbent in his peaceful tent, and he will be placed on the roll of honor as a "disabled veteran" and be supported by the government for the term of his natural life, he and his heirs and assigns forever, world without end.

Mrs. Mary Ellen Lease has renounced her allegiance to the populist party. The pops are to be congratulated on the re-Lease.

A PAGE OF HISTORY.

The Spanish copy of the peace treaty was signed on March 17th last by Queen Regent Maria Christina and is now in possession of Ambassador Cambon at Washington and the final exchange of ratifications is expected to take place at the white house tomorrow. Secretary Hay acting on behalf of the United States and M. Cambon on the part of Spain. The diplomatic ceremonial will mark the official termination of the war with Spain. President McKinley will issue his proclamation making formal announcement of restoration of peace, and then the American government will be open for another quarrel with the Donas.

It has all happened so quick. There was a dispute, rapid blows followed in rapid succession—and Spain's richest colonial possessions slipped from her palsied grasp.

And the American eagle screams with glory over another national victory.

The statement of the American general, as given in our dispatches yesterday, that it will take 100,000 soldiers to quell the irrepressible Filipinos is encouraging. An American force four times the size of our standing army before this imperialism began to be sent ten thousand miles on a mission of conquest! We are "in it."

Rheumatism Cured.

My wife has used Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism with great relief, and I can recommend it as a splendid liniment for rheumatism and other household use for which we have found it valuable.—W. J. Cuyler, Red Creek, N. Y.

Mr. Cuyler is one of the leading merchants of this village and one of the most prominent men in this vicinity.—W. G. Phippen, Editor Red Creek Herald. For sale by C. E. Holton.

Keeper Cyrus de Vry, of the Chicago (Ill.) Zoo, had a finger bitten off by a fractious lion.

Before the discovery of One Minute Cough Cure, ministers were greatly disturbed by coughing congregations. No excuse for it now. How Gardner's.

The Arkansas Legislature has passed a law fining women who wear stuffed birds on their hats.

A Clever Trick.

It certainly looks like it, but there is really no trick about it. Anybody can try it who has lame back or weak kidneys, malaria or nervous troubles. We mean he can cure himself right away by using Electric Bitters. This medicine tones up the whole system, acts as a stimulant to liver and kidneys, is a blood purifier and nerve tonic. It cures constipation, headache, fainting spells, sleeplessness and melancholy. It is purely vegetable, a mild laxative, and restores the system to its natural vigor. Try Electric Bitters and be convinced that they are a miracle worker. Every bottle guaranteed. Only 50c a bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

The Smallpox in Greensboro in 1899.

The smallpox came down with a terrible thud. And struck Greensboro just after the "flood."

How it ever got in through all the mud is a mystery to me.

But for all that 'twas there, for so said the mayor.

And the city aldermen, too.

And the laws they made for a vaccine raid.

Made the people feel quite blue.

Then a panic began, and every man, Woman, maid and child,

Of every station, talked vaccination.

And the doctors—how they smiled!

For many a door that had known before

The rap of a patient but once in a day,

Now stood open wide, with a dozen inside.

And twenty more blocking the way.

The doctors grew bold as they handled the gold.

That came pouring into their coffers.

While some of them claimed to be quite ashamed

Of the people who were scoffers,

And who laughed at the city, its voters and doctors,

And victims of smallpox scare.

And decreed they should feel the point of the steel,

Or pay a fine to the mayor.

Then followed a time when the general cry was,

"Look out for my arm! don't touch it, Oh, my!"

This from the women, the children would cry,

While the men, as usual, swore;

First at the man who had caused the scare,

Next at the city, its laws and the mayor,

And good-natured people were very rare

Where they had been found by the score.

But lo! In the midst of all this cry,

Likewise thunderbolt from a sunny sky,

Came news—at first some said 'twas a lie,

While the doctors looked conscience-stricken,

As they sadly thought of "what might have been."

I' they had not been fooled again:

For 'twas learned at last they had been too fast,

'Twas another case of "chicken."

Moral I've none, for 'twas only in fun

That I penned the lines you have read,

Though only the blind could fail to find

A moral in what I've said;

And for their ear I'll whisper it here:

"Be sure you are right, then go ahead."

A Victim.

Greensboro, N. C., April 1, 1899.

No Cure—No Pay.

That is the way all druggists sell Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic for Chills and Malaria. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. Children love it. Adults prefer it to bitter nauseating tonics. Price, 50c.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

"Rip Van Winkle" at the opera house tomorrow night. 50c and 35c.

It is reported that negotiations are on for the sale of some of the more valuable property on Davis street.

Dr. Cleo Barker was the only Salisbury Pythian who attended the district meeting last night. His presence was greatly enjoyed.

Sick benefit insurance is something new. Insurance against illness is very important these days. Read Murray Bros. ad on this subject.

The annual oratorical contest of the Websterian Literary Society of Guilford College will be held on the evening of April 28 at 7:30 o'clock.

N. J. McDuffie, of the mammoth furniture palace, has a change of ad in his large space on second page of today's paper. Read it and give him a call.

The directors of the Eagle Foundry Company met yesterday afternoon and elected C. W. Petty secretary and treasurer and manager, and J. R. Wall president.

Rev. S. S. Oliver, of Danbury, came down today. He leaves on the 6:30 local for Lexington to attend the 26th semi-annual session of Orange Presbytery, which meets tonight.

E. M. Caldebaugh & Brother are receiving fine china, glassware, crockery, tinware, woodenware and willowware. Fine lamps a specialty. Public invited to call and examine this fine stock.

A gentleman from Knoxville, Tenn., is in Greensboro prospecting with a view to locating here and engaging in business. The gates are ajar and it is hoped that he may find conditions favorable to locate among us.

B. E. Sergeant returned last night from Durham. Mrs. W. H. Branson and children returned with him to spend some time visiting at his home on East Washington street. Mrs. Branson has not yet decided whether she will reside in Greensboro permanently.

That prince of gentlemen, Maj. W. H. Martin, of Raleigh, returned home this morning after spending a couple of days with Mr. R. W. Finlator, who is sick at Mr. Duffy's, on Spring Garden street. Pythians had the pleasure of seeing Major Martin's face at the district meeting last night.

Prof. J. M. Bandy has about completed the survey on Arlington street preparatory to putting in a sewer pipe. The residents on Arlington have long been anxious for the extension of the pipe on that street and now the sewer reaches to the top of the hill 450 feet from the center of Fayetteville.

It's an argument to see them—that is what Rankin, Chisholm, Stroud & Rees say about their new spring line of young men's suits and we say the same ourselves. We have seen them and are ready to say that the line there people are showing is hard to beat—the prices struck us as being where they should be for an economical buyer. You can depend on this house to treat you fair.

Hu-man-ic

greatest specialty shoe of the age; greatest name ever given a shoe; greatest shoe for the price. It has required forty years to produce Hu-man-ic shoes; they are all the climax of forty years' manufacturing career; the thinking men of today demand comfort first, durability second, and grace and style next; they get all three harmoniously combined in Hu-man-ic shoes. Try a pair at Shrier's, 216 South Elm street.

Jail Jottings.

"Doc" Rucher was arrested by Constable Dave Scott yesterday afternoon charged with fighting.

John Sissle, white, got boozed yesterday afternoon and attempted to color the atmosphere with "cuss" words. For several minutes he stood on the corner of South Elm and Fayetteville streets and emitted the lurid language. He was having a gay old time when Officers Pearce and Jeffries pulled him in. When looked up he passed away some time in singing and beating tin pans, but sobered up quickly when there was talk of chaining him to the floor.

Will Locate in Durham.

Mr. J. Henry Smith, who has been in this city several months with a view to locating here, was unable to procure a suitable store room, and left today with his wife and son for Durham where he will establish an up-to-date department store. Mr. Smith spent several years in the big store of Butler Bros. in New York, and is therefore well qualified for the business. He would have proven a valuable and progressive citizen and we regret to lose him, but congratulate Durham on her gain.

Shrier's First Offerings.

We take pleasure this season in presenting for your consideration what we consider the finest assortment of Form-Fitting Shoes for men and ladies, misses and children, ever shown in Greensboro.

Our lines for Spring are now complete and only await the prestige of your approval. Every new idea in quality and finish, ease and comfort, grace of style and excellence of workmanship are embodied in this season's production.

Owing to our central location and the nominal expense required to conduct our business, we are enabled to sell our goods 25 per cent cheaper than any house in Greensboro, quality and make considered. The question where to buy good and reliable goods at the right price is a very important one. We feel if you call on us, we can answer the question to your entire satisfaction, and make a lasting impression besides.

Do not be deluded by the thought that the assortments in the large cities are greater. True, the quantity is greater, but the assortment is no better, and the price is correspondingly higher, owing to the increased expense.

Kindly call on us at your earliest convenience and allow us to prove to you that these statements are true.
